The Swisscare Nuweiba Resort Hotel is a small but spacious, simple and unpretentious property in an isolated location on its own beautiful, private, sandy beach between the majestic mountains of the Sinai and the sparkling clear, coral-filled seas of the Gulf of Aqaba.

With just a limited number of suites, a couple of restaurants and bars, an onsite dive centre, a large freshwater swimming pool and a beautiful sandy beach with a superb coral reef, the resort is the ideal setting for those wishing to experience total relaxation, solitude, peace and tranquillity away from the crowds in the larger tourist destinations.

The suites have two air-conditioned rooms, two bathrooms with hairdryer, and are ideal for upto 4 adults, and two small children. They also have a telephone, television, a free tea and coffee service, and a pay-as-you-consume minibar service.

A free wifi service exists in the hotel reception and some rooms but the service in Nuweiba can be slow and erratic.
